Further, it is stated that the information of Colleges should be given on the basis of physical verification & the assessment conducted in detail both qualitatively and quantitatively by matching with the norms prescribed by Maharashtra Nursing Council & MUHS / Deemed University.

Assessors are requested to physically verify the requirements as per the Assessment format & as laid down by MNC & MUHS / Deemed University norms.

Please read the Syllabus and go through the Syllabus before the assessment to avoid any untoward circumstances & check the compliance of the recommendations of the previous assessment committee, if applicable.

- Ensure the availability of required clinical field.
- It is mandatory on assessment team to confirm eligibility of Principal and teaching staff as per norms along with Original Affidavit of Principal, Management or else assessment report will not be considered by the Council.
- Assessors should inform the Council instantly their inability to conduct the assessment so that the new team can be assigned the same.

Obtain the signature of the Principal / Head of the institutions & handover the sealed report to the principal for dispatch immediately by Courier / Speed Post & Video Shooting (Pen Drive) done during the assessment.

- Any issues in emergency in exceptional case to be resolved by contacting Registrar of the Council. You can contact on – assessmentmnc2022@gmail.com
- No Assessment report will be valid if not received on mail on the same day
- Assessors are requested to verify all records thoroughly before signing the assessment report..

The authorities of the Nursing Colleges are informed that if they postpone the assessment then the continuation of affiliation will not be considered for the forthcoming Academic Year.

TA / DA to the Assessors will be paid by the Council.

I remain,

Archana Badhe (Naware)
